- 🐾 The next morning you will be flown farther up the trail to Finger Lake checkpoint and Rainy Pass, the highest checkpoint on the Iditarod Trail, where you will enjoy spectacular scenery and mingle with the teams who will be arriving throughout the day.
- 🐾 At the end of the day you will be flown back to Anchorage.

CONTINGENT PLAN

The Iditarod Start has been moved to Fairbanks three times in the past when conditions required. Should that occur the Ceremonial Start will still be in Anchorage March 7 but the official start will be delayed one day to March 9 to provide a travel time to Fairbanks. In that event you would stay at Pikes Lodge - the Official Start is from their parking lot. We would fly you to checkpoints at Nenana and Tanana with an overnight at Manley Hot Springs which is also a checkpoint.

PLEASE NOTE that there will be no refunds. For your safety flight operations are subject to weather conditions. If it is not safe to fly, adjustments will be made to provide you with the best experience we can subject to the conditions at the time. So be flexible and dress for extended time outdoors.
